Stewardship Reflection

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."
(Matthew 5:3)

The phrase "poor in spirit" can be confusing. Think of it in this sense - poor in spirit means depending on God's providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthly things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.

Marriage Encounter

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Let us begin with having peace in our marriages. Learn to have the best marriage by attending one of the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experiences on Feb 3-5, 2023, in WARRENTON, VA, and May 5-7, 2023, in HICKORY, NC. Early sign up is recommended.

Blessed Are Our Hassles

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

As much as we all might like a hassle-free life, for the person of faith the Beatitudes are markers of when God slips into our consciousness. They are life's doorways to a deepening sense of God-with-us.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit" is not about material poverty, though it may include such times. To be poor in spirit is to be dependent upon God because we have run out of our own self-sufficiencies. There is nowhere else to go.

"Blessed are they who mourn" is about times when we grieve the loss of someone or something we love deeply. Who or what will now sustain us?

"Blessed are the meek" is about giving up the need to have our own way all the time. It recognizes that sometimes God's way is breaking into what we prefer.

"Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness," that is, for a relationship with God. It is ultimately a hunger for harmony.

"Blessed are the merciful" is about being forgiving and about those who live out the corporal works of mercy—feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and the rest. In them we find the presence of God.

"Blessed are the clean of heart" is when we come to realize we cannot have it all. Then there is only one who will satisfy our longing.

"Blessed are the peacemakers" are those who not only love peace but work for peace, for God is peace.

"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness." They live for an ultimate good greater than their own. ●

Reflect

Which Beatitude would be a good title for your autobiography?

Which Beatitude needs the greatest growth in your life?

Pat Moran, parishioner. Condolences may be sent to Pat's wife, Lois, at 308 Passage Gate Way, Wilmington, NC 28412-3158.

Thank You Note

Dear Father John and parishioners of ICC,

This note of thanks for your generous gift of $1,000 for our students in Ecuador comes from out Motherhouse in Troyes, France, where I have the blessing to be with our Sisters from all our countries. We are here for meetings, the first since the pandemic. We have spoken with our Sisters serving in our missions and they are moved by your openness and generosity. Near the tombs of our Founders, we thank you for joining us in 'working for the happiness of others.'

Be assured of our grateful prayers for you and the intentions in your heart. You are remembered at Mass every Saturday in our chapel in Quito, Ecuador, and every Wednesday in a chapel in Troyes, France (hometown of our Motherhouse).

In Christ,
Sr. Anne Elizabeth, OSFS and
Oblate Sisters

Fatima Rosary Devotion

Fatima Rosary Devotion

Please join us in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel on Saturday, February 4, 2023, at 3:30 p.m. for the devotion requested by our Lady of Fatima for the first Saturday of the month:

"I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary."

We will pray the Holy Rosary led by a member of the ICC Chapter-By-Chapter Book Club. To complete the devotion you should allow time for meditation on the mysteries of the Rosary, attend Reconciliation, and receive Holy Communion.

Retrouvaille Program

Rediscover Your Marriage

Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage, but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope. Retrouvaille is a marriage program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or reawaken the love, trust, and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. Retrouvaille is a peer ministry of volunteer couples that can help you learn the tools of healthy communication, build intimacy and heal, just as they have done in their own marriages. For more information about the upcoming Retrouvaille Weekend program for couples on February 10-12, 2023, call 434-793-0242 or email: retrouvaillenc@msn.com or visit the web site at www.HelpOur Marriage.com.

Home Works Summer Mission

A group of 20 teens will be traveling to Fayetteville, NC on June 11– 16, 2023 to take part in a week long session that offers service projects that are prayerful and spiritual in nature. Home Works' activities focus on providing repairs to homeowners in need, assisting youth in their development, and empowering communities to meet the needs of its members. To learn more about the program, you can visit their website at www.homeworksofamerica.org.

The cost of the trip is only a $250 dollar donation! If you are interested in attending, a non-refundable $50 deposit with completed registration forms should be turned into Marie Marshall, Youth Minister, in the Parish Office. You can only secure a spot with your registration and the deposit, and it is first come first serve! Registration forms are available through the Youth Ministry Office.

Sponsoring a Youth

Can't go, but still want to help out? The $250 registration fee may be out of the budget for some interested families. If you would like to help sponsor a youth for this trip (partially or fully), or would like to contribute to the overall cost of this mission, please let Marie Marshall know today at mmarshall@iccwilm.org or 910-791-1003x110!

"Works of love are always works of peace. Whenever you share with others, you'll notice the peace that comes to you and to them."
~ Mother Teresa

Before we sit down to give thanks for our blessings, we are reminded of the needs of the more than 38 million Americans who are food insecure, meaning they lack consistent access to nutritious food. Our JYM & TYM have chosen to participate in Souper Bowl of Caring who make a difference each year in the fight against hunger and poverty in America.

On the weekend before Super Bowl Sunday, February 11 & 12, we are asking households to please bring in a can of soup for our own Souper Bowl Collection. Pull tab cans (those that do not require the use of a can opener) are preferred.

Last year we collected a record breaking number of cans at 2,161. We want to do the same this year. Our goal for 2023 is:

2,000 cans of soup

All of the cans collected will be given to The Help Center and Sister Isaac Outreach to serve those in our community who are most in need of a warm, full belly. We are grateful for your compassion, generosity, and willingness to help people in need.

Liturgy Corner

By Paul Turner

Fr. Paul Turner is pastor of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Kansas City, Missouri, and director of the Office of Divine Worship for the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. He serves as a facilitator for the International Commission on English in the Liturgy. He is the author of these bulletin inserts.

Conversion of St. Paul

The Conversion of St. Paul is one of the Bible's great stories. A man who persecuted Christians joins the group he was targeting. The story appears several times in the New Testament. Saul was traveling on the road to Damascus when he was struck by a blinding light and fell to the ground. Unable to see, he heard the voice of Jesus ask, "Why do you persecute me?" (Acts 9:4). Saul in turn asked, "Who are you, Lord?" (Acts 9:5). Housed by a disciple named Ananias, Saul learned about Jesus Christ, was baptized, and became known as "Paul." Through his travels, preaching, and writing, he became the most influential of all the followers of Christ. The conversation during his vision symbolizes the stance between God and the average human person: God asks why we do what we do, and we try to penetrate the mystery of God.

The Catholic Church celebrates a feast day in honor of Paul's conversion every year on January 25. There is no historical evidence linking this date to that event. The earliest appearance of January 25 on the Church calendar seems to have commemorated the anniversary of the day that the relics of this apostle were moved from the catacombs to the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls of Rome. The date later became associated with his conversion, probably because of the universal appeal of Paul's story.

As a feast day, the conversion outranks most other weekdays, but when it falls on a Sunday, the Ordinary Time liturgy takes precedence. However, Pope Benedict XVI made mid-2008 to mid-2009 a special year commemorating the two thousandth anniversary of the birth of St. Paul, and in honor of this event, he authorized the celebration of the Conversion of St. Paul on Sunday, January 25, 2009.
