Candidates may enroll in Level I as a freshman with immediate preparation and celebration of the sacrament in Level II the sophomore year. Stewardship opportunities and attendance to a Confirmation retreat are mandatory.

Diocesan Second Collection

Church In Latin America

This weekend we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Stewardship Reflection

*"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him."
(Matthew 4:22)*

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. In gratitude to God, we should give our first and best of everything to Him: our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries, and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

WE MUST HAVE PATIENCE WITH EVERYONE
BUT ESPECIALLY WITH OURSELVES.

Judged or Invited?

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matthew 3:2) is the message preached by Jesus after the arrest of John the Baptist. It is important to place this message in context. Jesus is not repeating the preaching of the Baptist. His message is unique and compelling.

Look closely at what Jesus is saying. Do not automatically fill in the blanks with the memories of every sermon you have heard. Try to hear Jesus’ words again, for the first time. Is the emphasis on “repent,” or is the emphasis on the announcement, “The kingdom of heaven is at hand”? Does it make any difference?

Repeat these words and change the emphasis each time. Play with the words. Let the words play with you. Notice how you respond. Notice what makes a difference. Notice how you react, and, most of all, notice whether you feel invited or you feel judged.

The Baptist made no bones about it. You are being judged: “Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees” (Matthew 3:10). Jesus, on the other hand, seems not to judge but to invite: “for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matthew 4:17).

In the invitation, we are challenged to see in a different way. Use different skills. Refrain from automatic judgments. Seek to understand but, most of all, to accept and to love. ●

Ministry at ICC

St. Martha's Meals

Do you like to cook? Do you enjoy helping others in a time of need? Are you looking for a way to get involved at ICC that is flexible and not a heavy time commitment?

If you have answered 'Yes' to any of the questions above, the St. Martha's Meals Ministry might be for you. We are looking for new members to spread the love of our ministry and meet the needs of additional parishioners who could benefit from this worthwhile service.

We are a group who prepares meals for parishioners who have experienced a death, illness, surgery, or the birth of a new baby. We use Sign-Up Genius to volunteer for dates to provide the meals (we can help you if you're not familiar with Sign-Up Genius). There are no specific time commitments, members just sign up as availability permits. However, we are looking for members who can commit to providing approximately five meals per year.

If this very rewarding ministry sounds like a good fit for you, please contact coordinator Kristin Behm at kfreccia@aol.com or by phone at 910-352-2761.

Souper Bowl of Caring

Before we sit down to give thanks for our blessings, we are reminded of the needs of the more than 38 million Americans who are food insecure, meaning they lack consistent access to nutritious food.

Our JYM & TYM have chosen to participate in Souper Bowl of Caring who make a difference each year in the fight against hunger and poverty in America.

On the weekend of Super Bowl Sunday, February 7 & 8, we are asking households to please bring in a can of soup or broth for our own Souper Bowl Collection. Pull tab cans (those that do not require the use of a can opener) are preferred.

Last year we collected 2,834 cans. We want to do the same this year so our goal for 2025 is:

2,800 cans of soup

All of the cans collected will be given to The Help Center, Sister Isaac Outreach, and Catholic Charities to serve those in our community who are most in need of a warm, full belly. We are grateful for your compassion, generosity, and willingness to help people in need.

Catholic High School News

Informational Meeting for Parents/Guardians

Thanks to the tireless efforts and collaboration of dedicated sub-committee members, finance councils and clergy, and with the blessing of the present pastor of St. Mary, Very Rev. Jairo Maldonado-Pacheco, previous pastor of St. Mary, Very Rev. Fr. Thomas Davis, and Pastor of St. Mark, Rev. Fr. Gregory Spencer, over the last two years, we are pleased to announce the co-parochial launch of the new Fr. Thomas F. Price Catholic High School at the Basilica of St. Mary for the 2026-2027 school year.

Our plan is to welcome an initial small class of 9th, and potentially 10th graders, with the goal of adding a new class each year, growing both enrollment and programs. Mr. Dennis Fleck, an experienced local educator, has been named Founding Principal of the School. Initiatives to refurbish and up-fit a set of four large classrooms in the historic Tileston Building on the campus of the Basilica of St. Mary are progressing. Applications for Admissions for the initial class for 2026-2027 are now being accepted. Admission is open to all religious denominations, and Fr. Thomas F. Price Catholic High School follows a non-discriminatory policy in regard to race, color, and national/ethnic origin.

We have met with students at St. Mary and have a meeting schedule with St. Mark students next week. An Open House will be held at a later date. We also encourage you to visit our school website at: <https://frpchs.org>

It takes the efforts and generosity of many to bring this project to a fulfillment. Donations to support the Fr. Thomas F. Price Catholic High School initiative are greatly appreciated. If you would like to support this initiative, donations can also be made on line through the school website: <https://frpchs.org>
