Stewardship Reflection

"He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." (Matthew 14:29)

When you hear Jesus calling, do you respond immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say 'Yes' to Jesus, we feel the power of His presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us. Listen to how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

Scam Alert

We are aware that fraudulent emails and texts appearing to be from Fr John and the ICC staff are continuing to go out to parishioners. Remember, if you are contacted electronically by someone identifying themselves as Fr John or another ministry leader who is "asking for a favor," please DO NOT REPLY to these messages.

The messages often contain requests for money or gift cards, but please be aware that Fr John will NEVER ask for something like this. If you receive a message, and are not sure, please call the Parish Office at 910-791-1003, extension 102.

You may also report phishing/fraudulent texts or emails to ic3.gov.

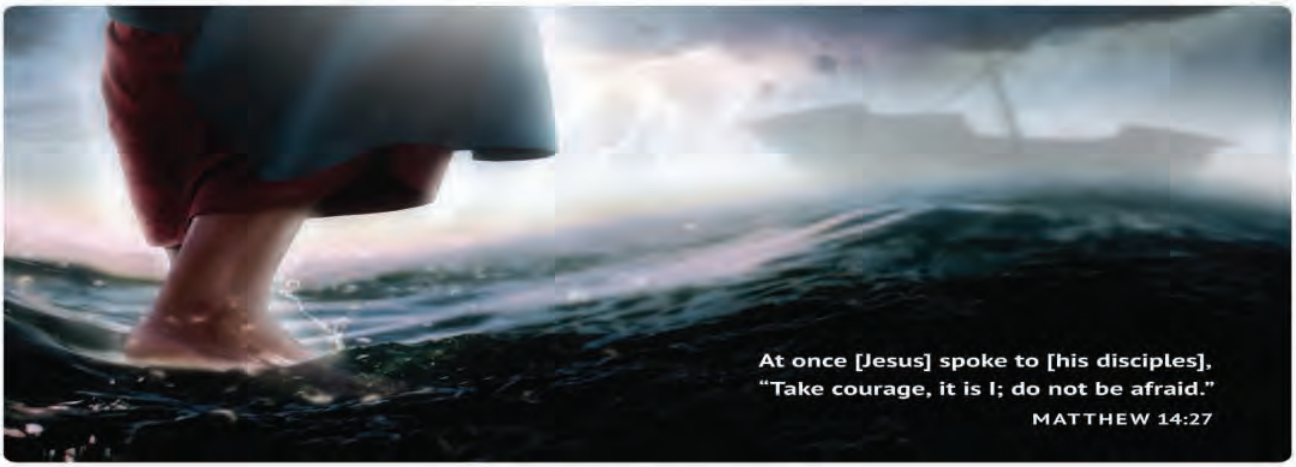
Our Parish COMMUNITY

August 9, 2026
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
1 Kings 19:9a, 11–13a / Romans 9:1–5 / Matthew 14:22–33



One for All

MIGUEL DULICK

In the first reading, Elijah is ready for anything—a whirlwind, an earthquake, a fire—because "the Lord will pass by" (1 Kings 19:11). But God comes tiptoeing, with a tiny whisper. Elijah, a giant of a prophet, covers his face like a child and wraps himself in the word of the Lord. Ordinarily, at this point, a homily would move on to the gospel. But in the second reading, from Romans, we are brought up short. Paul, a giant himself, would love a reassuring whisper from God. He is in utter agony, for the doubtful salvation of "my own brothers," the Jews. Such is his distress that he wishes he could offer himself in exchange, even to the extent of being "accursed and separated from Christ" (literally, "anathema") for "my kin." (See Romans 9:3.) His anguish is heartbreaking, especially since it seems to be a prayer he has repeated over and over. Paul was no doubt thinking of Moses, who dramatically offered his own life to save the Israelites from God's judgment after the golden calf: "[Lord,] if you would only forgive their sin! But if you will not, then blot me out of the book that you have written" (Exodus 32:32). Paul's faith told him that Christ had opened the door of salvation to everyone, and even rejection by the chosen people could not close it. In fact, it confirmed its universal promise. A paradox perhaps, much like when Jesus walked on water, as we hear about in today's gospel.

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

We live immersed in a culture of speed, immediacy, and haste—a culture of "discard" and indifference that prevents us from pausing along the way and drawing near to acknowledge the needs and suffering that surround us. In the parable, when the Samaritan saw the wounded man, he did not "pass by." Instead, he looked upon him with an open and attentive gaze—the very gaze of Jesus.

Letters to Bishop Luis

As part of our Faith Formation Program the level 3 class learns about the members of the Church. This includes the Pope, the Bishop and Pastor. The parent/child workshop includes writing letters to Bishop Luis. I am pleased to share some of his responses with you.

Dear Bishop Luis, my name is Nash. I like soccer. Who do you think is the best soccer player? What is the name of the church you went to as a kid? I go to Immaculate Conception Church.
--Nash

Dear Nash,
I don't get to watch much soccer so I don't think I could narrow it down to the best soccer player. When I do get to watch it, though, I usually watch one of the teams in Colombia. My favorite team in Colombia is Deportivo Pasto as Pasto is my hometown.
Where I grew up in Colombia, we had several parishes all within walking distance from my house. But the one my family and I went to was Cristo Rey Catholic Church. Cristo Rey means "Christ the King." It is a beautiful church and I hope you are as happy at Immaculate Conception Parish as I was at Cristo Rey.

In Christ,

Each year we budget to set aside offertory funds in anticipation of future repairs and projects. For some projects, we request and receive restricted donations. We will continue to plan to add to the parish savings accounts when offertory funds are available. If you would like to make a restricted donation to help offset the cost of any of these projects, your generosity will be greatly appreciated.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions, comments, or concerns. Thank you for your continued stewardship and support of our parish.
