Candidates may enroll in Level I as a freshman with immediate preparation and celebration of the sacrament in Level II the sophomore year. Stewardship Reflection

"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable."
(Romans 11:29)

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
Isaiah 56:1, 6–7 / Romans 11:13–15, 29–32 / Matthew 15:21–28

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish."
MATTHEW 15:28

Still Redeemable?

ANN M. GARRIDO

Not once, not twice, but three times in today's gospel, Jesus dismisses the Canaanite woman who comes to him for help. First, he refuses to speak to her. Then, he says he has come only for "the lost sheep" of Israel. Finally, he compares her to a dog. In ancient Judaism, dogs were considered unclean animals, and to call someone a dog was a harsh insult. How does it feel to hear Jesus speak to a woman in this way? We must admit that it does not sound like the Jesus we know and love.

With the trajectory of the encounter headed downhill (and picking up speed), it is hard to imagine that anything could be done at this point to change the outcome. If I were in her situation, I would have been so offended after the third dismissal that I would have simply slammed the door on the way out. But, remarkably, the story takes a 90-degree turn when the Canaanite woman enters into a verbal joust with Jesus and jolts him into taking her seriously. Very seriously. Jesus praises her for her faith.

"Faith in what?" one might ask. Perhaps faith that this relationship could still turn around. Faith that the antagonistic plotline of history between Jews and Canaanites could still change. Faith that Jesus could still be something other than a dismissive man. Faith that an ignored voice might still be worth hearing. Do we have the praiseworthy faith of the Canaanite woman? Do we still believe that troublesome interactions can yet be redeemed? ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

[T]he pain that moves us to compassion is not the pain of a stranger; it is the pain of a member of our own Body, to whom Christ our Head commands us attend, for the good of all. In this sense, our service is identified with Christ's own suffering and, when offered in a Christian spirit, hastens the fulfillment of the Savior's prayer for the unity of all.

PRIEST WELFARE & RETIREMENT SECOND COLLECTION

Diocesan Second Collection

Your Generous Support Is Needed and Appreciated.

Diocesan Bishops provide financial and housing support for retired diocesan and religious order priests in accord with the gospel. Many of our priests retire after 40 or 50 years of active ministry, far exceeding the typical years worked in most professions. Because our priests are paid a modest stipend during their active ministry, their corresponding Social Security benefit upon retirement is extremely small compared to workers with similar years of service.

The Priest Welfare and Retirement Fund provides additional resources for these priests. Our parish is staffed by the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales, who receive a portion of these funds for their retirement.

The cost of this financial support is allocated amongst all parishes of the diocese. Parishes meet this required commitment through 2nd collections. Any remaining balance must be paid from its operating budget.

Immaculate Conception holds four collections throughout the fiscal year to meet this commitment. The dates for 2026-2027 are: August 30, 2026, Christmas, Easter and Father's Day. The PWR is calculated at 5.8% of the offertory reported for the prior fiscal year that runs July 1—June 30 .

Immaculate Conception's commitment for the 2026-2027 fiscal year is $71,620 (5.8% of the Offertory on June 30, 2026).

Immaculate Conception plans to meet this commitment through the four Priest Welfare and Retirement collections held throughout the fiscal year.

Thank you for your stewardship!

70 † the normal retirement age for priests of the Diocese of Raleigh

53% † portion of the parish contribution that funds the Diocese of Raleigh Clergy Pension Plan.

21% † portion that pays long-term nursing home costs for priests of the Diocese of Raleigh and to pay salary, benefits and living expenses for priests of the Diocese of Raleigh and to provide support for priests who are ill, infirm, or otherwise unable to serve at this time.

12% † portion the Diocese of Raleigh provides to Religious Orders of priests working in the Diocese of Raleigh to assist with their retirement.

5% † portion that funds medical expenses of priests working or retired in the Diocese of Raleigh that are not covered by insurance (after priests have paid $500 deductible).

7% † portion funds health insurance and Medicare premiums for retired priests of the Diocese of Raleigh.

1% † portion that funds the Clergy Care Management Program which provides acute health care intervention and wellness programs for priests of the Diocese of Raleigh.

1% † portion that funds legal, actuarial and other professional services to maintain the Clergy Pension Plan of the Diocese of Raleigh.

These are the ones who have baptized our children, married our daughters, given the sacraments to our children, forgiven our sins, challenged us to live the Gospel, been at the bedside of the dying in the middle of the night, and are at the altar every Sunday to bring us Jesus. Now is our chance to say Thank You! Please consider a generous gift to the Priest Retirement Fund!

Knights of Columbus Corner

K of C Sponsorship Opportunities

Each year the Knights of Columbus Council 1074 operates a charity golf tournament. This year's event will be held on Monday, October 5, at Beau Rivage Golf & Resort. The tournament is currently sold out for golfers, but the Knights are offering parishioners the opportunity to support this special event by becoming a sponsor.

This year's tournament is dedicated to the memory of its founder and former Grand Knight, Lou Mattes, who passed away unexpectedly in December 2024. Proceeds from the tournament benefit local charities and veteran organizations in our community.

There are several levels of sponsorship to be had, all of which will go a long way towards supporting the Knights and those that we serve. If you would like to become a sponsor would like additional information, please contact the following Knights:

- Barney McAteer: 215-416-6752, bmcateer@gmail.com
- George Plarre: 233-1624, printsinthesand327@gmail.
- Ray Davis: 704-299-6629, RLDJ2@aol.com

Thank you in advance for your generosity and support. Your sponsorship will help us continue making a meaningful difference in the lives of local families and our nation's veterans. We will be accepting donations through September 9, 2026.

Letters to Bishop Luis

As part of our Faith Formation Program the level 3 class learns about the members of the Church. This includes the Pope, the Bishop and Pastor. The parent/child workshop includes writing letters to Bishop Luis. I am pleased to share some of his responses with you.

Dear Bishop, my name is Cullen Corbett. I live in Carolina Beach, NC. I'm the oldest sibling with 3 other siblings and a puppy. How did God create himself?
-Cullen

Dear Cullen,
You and I have something in common as I am the oldest sibling as well. I have 4 brothers and 1 sister, and we also had a dog growing up.
Actually, God did not create himself, he has just always existed. It is hard for us to understand this because everything we observe in nature has a beginning and an end. God, however, is in a different category, and must be so. God is different from all nature and humanity and everything that exists, in that He has always existed, independent from anything He created. In order to create something, the creator must be" greater" or "more powerful" than what he or she creates. But nothing is greater or more powerful than God.

In Christ,
✝ Luis Rafael Zarama, J.C.L.
Bishop of Raleigh

Catholic Diocese of Raleigh

All are reminded to dress with reverence and respect as they come to the liturgy all year long.
